Scopus

The image shows a 'Sign in' form for Elsevier Scopus overlaid on a blurred background of a lecture hall. The form is white with a close button (X) in the top right corner. It features the Elsevier logo at the top, followed by the title 'Sign in' and the instruction 'Enter your password to sign in to Scopus'. There are two input fields: 'Email' with a blue background and the text 'XXXXXXXXXX', and 'Password' with a blue background and masked characters '.....'. A 'Forgot password?' link is located below the password field. At the bottom, there is a checkbox labeled 'Stay signed in (not recommended for shared devices)' and a large blue 'Sign in' button.

iD

Distinguish yourself in three easy steps

ORCID provides a persistent digital identifier (an ORCID iD) that you own and control, and that distinguishes you from every other researcher. You can connect your iD with your professional information — affiliations, grants, publications, peer review, and more. You can use your iD to share your information with other systems, ensuring you get recognition for all your contributions, saving you time and hassle, and reducing the risk of errors.
